MUST LET CHINA ALONE

Nippon Envoy Gives Policy of Japan Concerning Country.

Japanese Not to Attempt Aggression nor Will She Allow It by Other Nations.

New York, Oct. 1.—Viscount Ishii, head of the Japanese mission to the United States, proclaiming a Monroe doctrine of the Far East, warns the nations of the world that no aggression against China, its territory or independence, would be tolerated by his country.

At the same time he pledged Japan not to attempt similar aggressions on her part.

Speaking at a formal dinner in honor of the imperial envoys' visit to New York, the ambassador of Emperor Yoshihito outlined publicly for the first time since he set foot on American soil the policy of his government as it relates to China.

"Circumstances for which we were in no sense responsible gave us certain rights on Chinese territory," Viscount Ishii said, "but at no time in the past and at no time in the future do we or will we seek to take territory from China or to dispossess China of her rights."

"Hands Off" Policy. Then with dramatic earnestness he expounded the "hands off" policy of his government.

While he boldly warned the world against any attempt to invade the rights of the republic of the Far East, Viscount Ishii promised with equal earnestness that the door to legitimate trade in China never would be closed by Japan. This declaration was cheered by the 1,000 public men, bankers, merchants and captains of industry who heard him.

"The door is always open. It always has been open, it always must remain open," he said, "to representatives of these vast commercial interests, represented so well in this great gathering of kings of commerce. 'Gentlemen, I assure you that a closed door in China has never been and never will be the policy of my government. The door is open, the field is there.'"

ASKED TO RAISE $175,000,000

That Amount of Second Liberty Loan Apportioned to Northwestern States.

SALE OF BONDS BEGINS

Amounts Assigned to Each District Are Computed on Percentage Basis, Considering Territory's Resources.

Washington, Oct. 1.—By the announcement of treasury department officials apportioning the forthcoming bond issue by districts, the Ninth federal reserve district, whose financial center is Minneapolis, is expected to subscribe $125,000,000 to the second Liberty loan.

The campaign to float the gigantic loan of $3,000,000,000 will begin tomorrow. Virtually two-thirds of the loan is expected to be raised in the New York, Boston, Cleveland and Chicago districts, with only half apportioned to the first three-named districts.

Apportionments indicate only what each district is expected to do and may be entirely upset, as in the case of the first Liberty loan, by the actual subscriptions. In making the apportionments, officials used two bases of subscriptions, the minimum of $3,000,000, 000, and an "expected amount" of $5,000,000,000.

Apportionment by Districts. Here is the apportionment by federal reserve districts, as announced by the Treasury department:

District	Pct.	Minimum	Expected
New York	30	$900,000,000	$1,500,000,000
Boston	10	300,000,000	500,000,000
Philadelphia	8 1/2	250,000,000	415,000,000
Cleveland	10	300,000,000	500,000,000
Richmond	4	120,000,000	200,000,000
Atlanta	3 1/2	105,000,000	175,000,000
Chicago	14	420,000,000	700,000,000
St. Louis	4	120,000,000	200,000,000
Memph.	3 1/2	105,000,000	175,000,000
Kansas C.	4	120,000,000	200,000,000
Dallas	2 1/2	75,000,000	125,000,000
San Francisco	7	210,000,000	350,000,000
Totals	100	$3,000,000,000	$5,000,000,000

In each case the announcement reads, "the amount has been computed on the percentage basis, and while the banking resources of each district—that is, the total resources of the national banks, state banks and trust companies—have been given large consideration, other factors have been taken into account, such as the income tax collected from each district, the assessed value of property therein, the subscriptions received from each district to the first Liberty loan, and the amount of bonds allotted on such subscriptions, the capital available for bond investment in each district and its population."

Governors of the federal reserve banks have been notified by Secretary McAdoo of the apportionments. The sums stated in the "expected amount" column are designated as "the amount which each district should subscribe in order to secure the result imperatively demanded for the defense and security of the nation."

McAdoo Opens Campaign. Secretary McAdoo will open the campaign informally with a speech in Cleveland, Ohio, the first of many he will deliver in a trans-continental tour. More than 26,000 banks will co-operate in floating the huge issue. The entire press of the country which contributed so largely to the success of the first issue, will work for the success of the second.

U. S. NOW CONTROLS COAL

Order Issued Expected to Bring Speedy Price Reduction.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Government control over the coal industry was made complete by an order of Fuel Administrator Garfield, limiting the profits of retail coal and coke dealers throughout the country to a basis which is expected to bring about an immediate reduction in prices to the consumer.

The order, effective at once, directs that the retailers shall fix their prices so as to limit their gross margins over cost to the average of such gross margins during 1915, plus a maximum of 30 per cent of the 1915 margin, provided that in no case shall the average margin of July, this year, be exceeded.

PLAN OF TWO SENATORS

Gore and La Follette Wanted Opposition to Revenue Bill.

Started a Nation-Wide Propaganda Which Was Revealed by Recipients of Letters.

Washington, Oct. 1.—There has been revealed to their colleagues and members of the House an attempt of Senators Gore of Oklahoma, and Robert M. La Follette to stir up nationwide opposition to the war revenue bill as passed by the senate.

They sought to utilize the services of certain county officials in this propaganda work.

But instead of helping to spread discussion over the merits of a war measure many of these officials, at once notified their senators and representatives of the activities of Gore and La Follette.

A multigraphed letter dated September 1, and bearing the stamped signature of these two senators was mailed at the postoffice here at 5:30 p. m. September 11, the day after the Senate passed the war revenue bill, to county clerks, presumably in all states. Asked for Names.

Enclosed with the single page letter were a stamped, self-addressed envelope and four sheets of blanks upon which the recipient was asked to place the names of three intelligent and public spirited citizens who take an interest in matters relating to taxation, in each precinct, township or civil subdivision of your county.

There were spaces for ten precincts or thirty names on each blank, or 120 for each clerk to furnish.

In addition to the township or precinct, name and postoffice, the county clerks were asked to tell the occupations of those whose names were sent to the Senators.

The letter and enclosures were mailed in an envelope bearing Senator Gore's return mark. Four cents postage was required.

TEDDY LAUDS MINNESOTA

Stays State is Loyal but Needs Right Leadership.

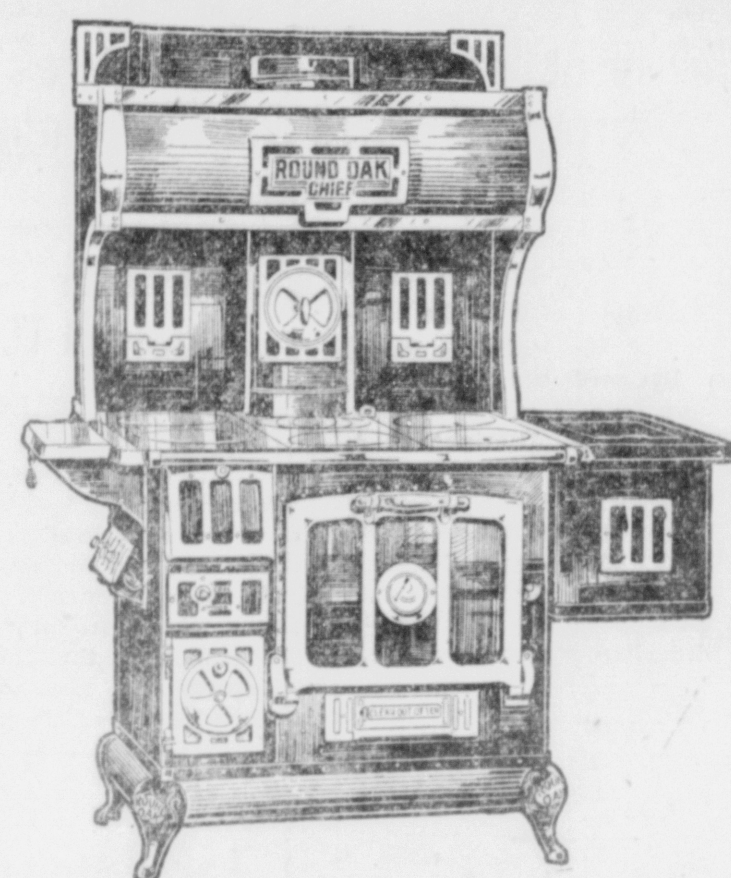

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who has just closed a patriotic speaking campaign in the cities of the Middle West, was in Chicago for several hours en route east.

"Minnesota and Wisconsin are as straight and loyal as any other states," said Colonel Roosevelt. "All they need is the right leadership. In my whole career I never saw anything like the crowds and enthusiasm in Minneapolis and St. Paul. The people of the northwest are thoroughly alert and patriotic."

As Colonel Roosevelt passed through the railway station he spied a group of the Seventh Illinois regiment about to leave for a southern training camp.

He stopped and shaking hands with several of the men as he went.

"Boys, I congratulate you most heartily. I only wish I were going with you. You know my four boys are in the service."

WOMAN'S REALM

APPEAL TO JOIN THE RED CROSS

The American Red Cross, through A. R. Rogers, manager of the Northern Division, is appealing to every man, woman and child to affiliate with the organization and assist in distributing comfort and cheer to our troops, and the loved ones they left at home. The appeal this week states:

The American Red Cross—your Red Cross by the way—is the fastest growing organization in the world. Today it has a quarter of a million members in the northwest, where it had only a few thousand five months ago. But it needs a million, and has room for every patriotic American.

The Red Cross needs YOU, and you need it. You aren't 100 percent American until you have joined. Right now—today—is the time for you to affiliate with the nearest Chapter. If there isn't a Chapter handy, start one.

It is just as important in winning this war that you, and every American, join your Red Cross, as it is for you to buy Liberty Bonds, be economical in your expenditures, and give full loyalty to the government.

Remember, the American Red Cross, needs you; but YOU need it far more.

Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

Not all the news is of the front. These days for at the rear of many Fall and Winter frocks the bustle doth appear. 'Tis quite appropriate a style. And useful for the Fall. Especially on skating suits. It should appeal to all.

New York, Oct. 1.—Coming events cast their shadows before coming fashions off cast 'em behind, at least that's where bustles are casting them now I think you will very soon find. Already on many of smartest new frocks these same projections protrude so hustle and get you a bustle right now while you're in a bustly mood.

I went to the opening of a new play quite the best of the season. It's about Polly's Past with an excellent cast and sweet Ina Claire is the star. I do declare if Miss Claire doesn't wear in two of the acts out of three gowns with bustles pronounced which quite clearly amounts to a sanction of bustles you see. For the gowns of the stage really make all the rage the fashions for you and for me. Now I really did find it hard keeping my mind on Polly's Past when did appear those bustles so smart built with Kicks's best art instead it was on Polly's rear.

One gown that she wore I just know you'd adore. 'Twas white broadcloth perfectly plain. Long and straight was the waist the long tight sleeves were faced with black velvet just over the hand and the waist line quite low in the front made a show of a rather wide black velvet band. In the back was the best as you've probably guessed here a full broadcloth flounce very jaunty gave the bustle line at the end of the spine in a manner quite perky and jaunty.

An evening gown too had a bustle on view, it was thin fluffy stuff colored flame and with artistic knack the draped skirt was pulled back in a fluffed bustle puff. O'er the same was some black monkey fur in a fringe I aver and of monkey fur too was the fan. This original gown is the talk of the town. Folks will ape it I'm sure if they can.

I will not mention next that for bustle effects quite a few short end sashes are worn and the surprise waist too with long ends that tie through in a bow will our spine ends adorn.

But on your bustle quest you will find that on best that the draped up skirts forms in the rear. It's the finishing touch that shows plainly how much you're an up-to-date dresser this year.

Since digging we go in the long long ago for our fashions it isn't so queer that the bustle we'd pick for this year's leading trick. It will lead though it brings up the rear. There's much can be said in its favor no dread need we have if we slip on the ice if a bustle we wear then we don't have to care for we've something to sit on that's nice. If you'd sit more at ease on your fiancé's knees which are just a bit knobby you know in more comfort you'll rest if your stylishly dressed in your new bustled frock, yes, quite so.

Besides looking quaint its so nice when you faint, the old bustled frock was much rougher and in fierce subway rush when there's always a crush its handy you'll find as a buffer. Glad the bustle is back as you sit on a tack you will be I most deeply surmise for the point of the tack is a point of attack that would cause one not bustled to rise.

There are many more points I know in its favor and so we can't squelch it although it is sat on and we'll not feel complete till when dressed for the street we've our bustles as well as our hat on.

"THE MOTH"

Brilliant Film Story at "The Best" Monday and Tuesday, a Story of Fashionable World

"The Moth" is the attraction Monday and Tuesday at the "Best" theatre. It is a film story of intense interest.

"The Moth" reveals a section of the fashionable world which looks upon diversion as the chief end of life, and which consequently becomes utterly reckless, and, too frequently, immoral, in the chase for pleasure.

Into this maelstrom comes a young wife, the mother of two lovely children, who, like the proverbial moth, hovers dangerously near the flame.

Norma Talmadge has in this role, one of her greatest characterizations. The struggle and final victory make the picture intensely dramatic.

Here is the cast of characters:

Lucy Gilliam.....Norma Talmadge
A. Valentine Spencer.....Harold Short
Captain Auchester.....Eugene O'Brien
Nita Marbridge.....Virginia Dare
Teddy Marbridge.....Adolph Menjou
Ned Cunningham.....Donald Hall
Mrs. Cunningham.....Maud Allen
Lawrence Gilliam.....Frank Kingdon
Tutor.....Robert Vivian
Larry, Lucy's child.....Kenneth Worms
Babe, Lucy's child.....Aida Armand

THE BOYS WILL COME HOME

(St. Cloud Times)
Some of our sons, brothers or other relatives have gone to the war. Others are still to go. The homes that knew them before misses their cheery voices, and the chairs they occupied at table are vacant. There is sadness in the household—there is sorrow in the mother's heart. Still, there is not sufficient cause for grief and sorrow which to you seems almost hopeless.

Your boy will come back!
In the four years of our civil war, the average killed or died of wounds was 25 to 1,000, or 2 1/2 to 100.

As a matter of fact, the death rate in the Allied armies on the western European front is only about three times that among men of the same age in civil life. Statistics proving this statement have been compiled by the Committee of Public Information from the report of M. Tardieu, French high commission, by the Equitable Life Insurance Company, and by Roger Babson, Wellesley statistician.

Fifteen men out of every sixteen in the Allied Armies have been safe through three years of fighting.

During the past year not more than one man in thirty has been killed.

The death rate from disease is less than in peace times.

Only one man in five hundred loses a limb—a chance no greater than that in hazardous occupations at home.

THE BOYS WILL COME HOME!

THE POTATO MARKET

(Prepared by the Markets Division of the State Food Committee for the Public Safety Commission.)

The demand for potatoes in carlots during the past week, has been disappointing. The weather has been too fine to develop any buying activity for winter storage. Thus the outlet for the present large crop is now confined to the amount required for immediate use. Hence values have ruled weak and in some sections of the state have gone as low as 65 cents per bushel, field run. Toward the close of the past week, carlots in the territory of the Twin Cities have sold at a range of from 90 cents to $1.00 per bushel. These prices apply to lots in sacks.

The market is also comparatively slow at Chicago and prices are ruling $1. Michigan growers are practically in control of this market and are willing to shade Minnesota prices five or ten cents per bushel at any time in order to effect a sale. This is a big handicap to those seeking an outlet for the Minnesota crop and should be seriously considered by growers.

The onion market is higher than last week. Fancy stock will probably command even better figures in the near future than are now ruling. At present the price is around $2.20 per hundred pounds.

Prices for other Minnesota products are fairly satisfactory. The cabbage market is showing reasonable strength, and good quality apples, well packed, are bringing around $1.00 per bushel for the ordinary varieties and $1.50 for Jonathans.

An ingenious device has been invented by an American, says an exchange, to prevent such motoring accidents as arise from overspeeding. He describes his contrivance as follows: "While the car is running fifteen miles an hour a white bulb shows on the radiator, at twenty-five miles a green bulb appears, at forty miles a red bulb, and, when the driver begins to bat 'em around sixty per a music box under the seat begins to play 'Nearer My God, to Thee.'"

One who arrests a deserter receives $50 reward from the government. Any man who does not appear before the local board for examination, having been drafted, is classed as a deserter.

Fifty rats on a farm will cost the owner $100 to $300 a year.

"Little Baby! Little Baby!" is the popular refrain that dropped from the lips of Fargoans yesterday when they saw Tommie Wood, entertainer from Brainerd, Minn., walking down the streets.

That Mr. Wood is "some baby" is proved by his own figures. "I only weigh 484 pounds now," he said yesterday while in the Courier-News office, "the recent hot weather and present high cost of living are surely wearing me down to a mere shadow. It wouldn't be so apparent if I were short, but with less than seven pounds to the inch to distribute over my six feet four inches of height I feel as if I were somewhere else with nothing but my light and airy ghost standing in my shoes."

City Coal Yard Not Legal.

Crookston, Minn., Oct. 1.—The charter commission has turned down the amendment to the city charter for a municipal coal yard as unconstitutional. The state constitution provides that the city shall not make interior improvements and also that taxation shall be for public purposes only, while the coal and wood yard would be a private enterprise.

Duluth May Have Food Controller, Duluth, Minn., Oct. 1.—As a result of Mayor Wagner's investigation into alleged wholesale destruction of food at the city incinerator, the appointment of a food administrator is a probability. Mayor Wagner returned from Columbus, O., yesterday. He said that he will "tackle the problem immediately and complete his investigation." When he first took up the investigation, he consulted with the Minnesota Public Safety commission. Commissioner March suggested a food administrator be appointed.

Opportunities For Older Men
Because of the war many positions formerly filled by young men are open to older men. A man's kidneys may make him unfit for hard labor or clear thinking, may make him old before his time, for poisons retained in the system "slows him up" physically and mentally. WONT MOLEST SENATOR

Solons Not Disposed to Notice Opposition to La Follette.

Seditious Speech Must be Made on Floor of Senate to Receive Attention of Legislators.

Washington, Oct. 1.—It is improbable that Senator La Follette will be called to account for his unpatriotic address at St. Paul, September 20, unless some member on his own responsibility introduces a resolution to unseat the Wisconsin senator.

The feeling is general among members that no cognizance should be taken of outside resolutions, such as the one by the Minnesota Public Safety commission which was submitted to the Senate today by Senator Frank B. Kellogg.

There is a sentiment here that the Senate should hold its members to account only for what they say before that body.

This rule prevailed in the Civil war. It was said hundreds of messages and letters have been received by senators from their constituents demanding that La Follette be expelled.

Senator Pomerene of Ohio, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, to which the Minnesota resolution, a report of La Follette's St. Paul speech and four other messages relating to La Follette were referred, however, said that a meeting will be held as soon as he can get a quorum.

So many senators are away that he expressed fear that this may not be before the regular session in December.

Yesterday's meetings were all head liners. They arose to high tide and were full of spiritual dynamic. It is impossible to say which struck the deepest chord—they were so different in character.

The morning meeting opened a vista into heaven and the afternoon lecture struck twelve with the large gathering of men that filled the middle sections of the big building. In this meeting the evangelist "went over the top" and carried the crowd with him. A lot of trenches were captured and consolidated and now the revival campaign has the banner of the cross a little nearer the inner fortifications of the enemy.

It would be presumptuous to try to do justice to the evening meeting in a few lines. The big crowd, the magnificent singing of the great chorus, the lit up faces of the people all had to be "felt" to be appreciated. The revival campaign is on, its fires are burning, and there is a magnicent possibility of the whole city reaching up towards higher ideals.

It has been a strong pull. The last week has been a skirmishing for points of advantage against barb wire entanglements and crater pits. The evangelist is up against the hardest proposition of his career and he knows it. When he succeeds in arousing Brainerd to a realization of its spiritual deadness he will have accomplished what Christ accomplished when He stood by the grave of Lazarus and bade him come forth.

The sun light streamed through the tabernacle windows in long slanting rays yesterday afternoon but the light that was cast from the preacher's pulpit was brighter still, yes, and hotter, for that light shone into the secret practices of men who love darkness.

Bromley is a Savanorola—a preacher of righteousness—a Daniel come to judgment. No church or preacher should stand in the way of the upward sweep of this great movement of evangelism. "Christ is wounded in the house of His friends" when one half stands arrayed against the other half in a soul saving drive. The work is on. The fires are burning! People are taking the front seats! Fall in!

No true man wants fulsome things said about himself in the public press for the sake of personal vanity. He tolerates them for the sake of the cause he represents. The preacher who has his press agent tell about his eloquent sermons gives indication of abnormal vanity. Bromley has collected no praise and the press committee of this campaign feels that it would be doing an injustice to the people of Brainerd not to tell of the great work that is being done in our city and the greater work that will be done if everybody "falls in" and marches together.

No one church can get hold of an entire city, all must work together.

The sermon Sunday morning was from the text, John 17:18, "As thou hast sent me into the world even so have I sent them into the world." The whole service brought heaven a little closer to the people present. It gripped the heart strings and opened up the wonderful possibilities before a truly consecrated person.

The entire service was conducted with the dignity of a cathedral service. The hymns sung were the great, old hymns of the church, such as "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," and the prayer by Rev. Hostager, the responses read by the people, all were in keeping with the quiet grace of a worshipful, Sabbath morning devotion.

It was a great day in Israel. State churches do not have all the advantage over a tar-paper booth for rendering true worship. The evangelist has a kindly soul—there is no venom in his criticism of the professional church but a genial, good nature which disarms the scorner.

When he said "what can God find to love in the people of Brainerd, I'd like to know?" the sting of it was taken out by what followed, "what can God find to love in me that He would give His son to die for me?"

The mission of the church is the same as the mission of Christ. Know that Christ came into the world to seek and save that which was lost and you know what the church is organized and perpetuated for. The passion and the burden of the heart of Christ was to save men from a lost world. When He suffered He made no complaint but said "It must be so." He bore the burden of the world upon His shoulders like Atlas as pictured doing.

Today the church is more concerned about the bodies of men than about the souls. The church must realize that no man is prepared to meet Jesus Christ in His second coming unless he is a saved man.

The church is Christianity organized for propagating its faith. It is made to save men as an army is made to fight or a tree made to bear fruit. The life of the church does not depend upon the fineness of its outer structure but in the spirit with which it takes up the cross for its Master. The days of the martyrs were the days when the church had its power.

The world expects from the church that it be a spiritual, not social, or political organization; that it be loyal to God Almighty; that it be anxious about the saving of souls. The thing that stands in the way of the church reaching the lives of the un saved is the inconsistent life of the church member.

The following are some of the comments concerning the meeting to men only: "I heard men say, men who do not go to church, 'It was the best lecture I ever heard in my life.' I say the same. It was a marvelous (Continued on page 6)

GEN. LEONARD WOOD FOR TOBACCO FUND

"Nothing Gives Soldiers More Contentment and Pleasure After a Hard Day's Work"

SOLDIERS APPRECIATE THE KITS

General Wood Not the Only Public Man Who Says Soldiers Must Have Tobacco

General Wood says tobacco is a necessity for soldiers.

General Leonard Wood, former commander of the Department of the East, and designated to command a division of the National Army to be mobilized at Fort Riley, Kansas, said recently:

"The idea of sending tobacco to the American soldiers in France is a capital one. Nothing gives a soldier in the field more pleasure and contentment than a cool refreshing smoke after a hard day's fighting or while awaiting call to the firing line. 'Life in the trenches is very hard, and I knew the American soldiers will appreciate and enjoy remembrances in the form of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and pipes."

There is plain language from a man who knows. You don't want any better endorsement for The Brainerd Daily Dispatch Tobacco Fund than this. General Wood is only one of the public men who has gone on record with a statement that our soldiers abroad must have tobacco and cigarettes.

The Brainerd Daily Dispatch Tobacco Fund is making it easy for you to help. Your quarter starts it and the Dispatch does the rest.

Here is what your quarter buys:

2 Packages of Lucky Strike Cigarettes, retail price .30
3 Packages of Bull Durham Cigarettes, retail price .15
3 Books Bull Durham Cigarette papers
1 Tin of Tuxedo Tobacco, retail price .10
4 Books of Tuxedo Cigarette papers .55

W. J. Hogan, trainman, said the boys on the road wanted the boys at the front to have their tobacco.

Harold E. Webb of the Parker & Topping Co. foundry, was glad to give $2.50 to the fund. That will buy 10 smokers kits.

Mrs. D. F. Stacy gave a quarter and said she had a grandson in the army and it would help him to get a smokers' kit.

F. W. Fuller gladly gave half a dollar to swell the fund.

The Brainerd Grocery Co. came in with $6, each one at the wholesale house having contributed $1. That gave the tobacco fund a good boost and provides 24 kits.

Shortly after Louis Rosenlund of 1196 Quince street gave a half a dollar. T. H. Green brought in a quarter for Dan Nichols of Barrows and a quarter for himself.

"I served in the civil war," said Mr. Green, "and I know what it means to go without tobacco. Anything we can do to make easier the lot of the soldiers should be done quickly."

The first contributors October 1 were Arthur Nykanen with a quarter, W. L. Taylor with $1 and John Knutson of 1419 Pine street with a dollar.

NEW WAY OF DOUSING FIRE

M. & I. Burning Caboose Run From Nary to Bemidji and There Fire Put Out by Dept.

(Bemidji Daily Pioneer)

The generally accepted way in case of a destructive fire is to have the fire quenching apparatus proceed to the fire, but last night the fire was brought to where it was doused, and it happened somewhat thusly:

A caboose on the M. & I. railroad, used by the telegraph and linemen crews, mysteriously caught fire between Nary and Bemidji. The train crew uncoupled the burning caboose and brought it to Bemidji where a quinquas was placed upon the flames.

LOCAL ACTRESS HERE

Iona Fendell Stock Company Playing a Return Engagement and are Drawing Large Houses

The Iona Fendell stock company on Sunday evening opened a return engagement in Brainerd with what the management claimed was a sequel to "Peg O' My Heart," the play being entitled, "What Happened to Peggy."

"Peg O' My Heart" has been seen several times in Brainerd and the stock company play ran a close second in plot and scenes. New characters were that of the grandfather, whose relatives waited very patiently for the end, and the grandchild who gave him the sleeping potion of extra strength.

Miss Fendell is a Brainerd girl and has many relatives here. In the role of Peggy she was very natural and funny and kept her audience amid tears and laughter, which is one of the characteristics of the type of the part she was playing. Her company is well balanced and every character is good.

The vaudeville between the acts was exceptionally good for a stock company, and worth the price of admission alone.

The play was interrupted at one point by some talking in the gallery, which was quickly squelched by a lecture from one of the actors.

The Brainerd opera house was filled to capacity, the business done being the best of the season. Tonight an equally large house is expected to see "The Wolf."

lecture."—Theodore Clemens, pastor Swedish Bethany church.

"Dr. Bromley's lecture was a herculean stroke against immorality, intemperance and impurity. If our people accept the single standard for both men and women, and hang every so-called man that plots the downfall of young womanhood it will hasten a great moral victory."—George Herholdt, pastor Evangelical church.

"It was one of the best lectures of the kind I ever listened to and should have been heard by every man in Brainerd."—R. E. Cody, pastor Baptist church.

The preacher spoke in part as follows: "There is much false modesty in the church, the folks in the pews criticize the preacher for making reference to secret sins and say the 'preacher is vulgar' but they go to the shows and pool halls and hear the worst kind of talk and see the most shameful pictures and never say a word. Or they sit together and tell the smutty stories, but if the pulpit speaks of the seventh commandment there is an outcry.

I am not a reformed drunkard nor have I been rescued from a life of shame. I have never been on a ball room floor in my life (great applause) but I am talking from twenty years experience in dealing with men and I know whereof I speak.

A man should be as clean as he wants his wife to be, just as clean as his ideal of womanhood. The child has a right to be well born. The child will inherit characteristics from grandparents that may prove a terrible handicap through life. Sometimes sparks of lust are transmitted that only need a minor breeze to fan them into a deadly flame.

The man who says he is honest and yet is not a Christian is a liar. He may pay his grocery bill or even his church pledge and this charge be true. The man pays his debt to God, to his country and to his unborn child to be well born he stands before God without one honest prop to lean on.

If you want to straighten the kinks out of the boy begin with the father. The right kind of a father will spend his nights home with the children instead of in the pool halls, the movies, and the dance room. If the father had as much care for his boy as the farmer has for his horse, cow or hog the lads wouldn't go to the bad as they do.

If mothers would treat the boys as carefully as the girls they would turn out as well as the girls. Secret sins have an awful effect on mind, body and soul. They affect memory, nerves and intellect. The channels of ruin most common for the beginning of lust and secret sinful practices are wrong associations, theatrical exhibitions and shows, nude pictures and statuary, the dance and the bathing beach, improper suggestive dress among women, and courtship with its privileges. These are the common channels of stimulating unholy affections.

The modern dance is the greatest source of ruin among girls and constitutes their chief source of danger. The reserves of modesty are broken down and that womanly reserve so beautiful in a pure girl gradually crumbles in the embrace of the dance. When the first line of defenses are gone all the rest follows as a natural consequence.

The largest crowd that has yet attended the tabernacle was out last night for the evening service. Charlie Wicand put on the "rousements" and everybody was full of good cheer when Mr. Bromley rose to speak. Prayer was offered by Rev. Cody and a quartet composed of Dr. Long, Miss Beck, Miss McCague and Mr. Nicholas sang "Remember Thy Creator." It was a splendid introduction to the appeal of the evangelist.

The text was from Galatians six seven, "As you sow so shall you also reap." This is a simple truth that is observable by any person. Sow wheat and you reap wheat. Sow sin and you reap sin. It takes a considerable time for sin to grow and mature and bear fruit but the reaping is inevitable. If sin brought forth fruit at once and was punished immediately there would be a great alarm felt for it but the processes of nature and God are sure and take time to reach maturity. While man is thinking he has escaped the consequences of his sins the ripening processes are going on within him and will at last burst into deadly bloom. "Because sown"

tence against an evil work is not executed speedily therefore men set themselves to do evil."

The day of reckoning is coming. It takes time for a century plant to bloom, it takes time for a river to wear its gorge but it comes at last. If a man were struck dead for fishing, hunting or picnicing on Sunday there would be less of it. Men drift into these practices till their consciences become so buried it would take an archeologist to unearth it.

It does not take many sins to ruin a man, one is enough. Just one sin committed by Adam brought all its awful brood into birth, till now the whole world lies in wickedness awaiting the judgment of an offended God.

REVENUE BILL IS DECIDED UPON

Conferees Come to Agreement After Wrangling for Three Weeks.

READY FOR FINAL VOTE

Bill as Agreed on Raises Senate Estimate $300,000,000 and That of House $900,000,000—Liquor Tax Raised.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The conferees on the war revenue bill have reached an agreement after three weeks' wrangling. The bill raising $2,716,000,000 in war taxes will be taken up by the house at once for final consideration.

As reported, the bill is an increase of $300,000,000 over the senate's measure and $900,000,000 over the house bill.

These increases were obtained through restoration of the 3-cent letter postage provisions, increase in second class postage rates, higher rates on tobacco and restoration of taxes on jewelry and inheritances.

The bill as finally agreed on fixed the graduate scale of exemptions for war profits as follows: 20 per cent of profits which do not exceed 15 per cent of the capital; 25 per cent on profits over 15 and under 20 per cent; 35 per cent on profits over 20 and under 25 per cent; 45 per cent on profits over 25 and under 33 per cent; 60 per cent on profits over 33 per cent.

Wine Tax Doubled. The whisky tax is $1.10 a gallon. The present tax was doubled on still wines, champagne and sparkling wines. On grape brandy or wine spirits withdrawn from a bonded warehouse, the present tax is doubled. On sweet wines 10 cents a gallon is added to present taxes. On grape brandy or wine spirits used in fortification of sweet wines, 20 cents a gallon is added.

On soft drinks, rates were compromised between the high house and senate minimum. Cigars, snuff and chewing tobacco were increased. The automobile tax was increased from 1 per cent in the senate bill to 3 per cent. The house percentage on the selling price of piano players, etc., is levied. A like rate was placed on sporting goods, such as tennis racquets and golfballs.

Postal Rates Increased. On postal rates, in addition to providing that within 30 days after passage of the act, letter postage shall be 3 cents instead of 2 cents as at present, the report adopts a zone system on newspapers and magazines. It provides a schedule of rates based on advertising and reading matter, effective July 1, 1918.

The income tax section remains virtually as passed by the senate. Admission and dues will raise about $23,000,000. Amusement parks and concessions charging 10 cents or more for admission are taxed. Movie films are taxed 1/4 of a cent a foot. Jewelry is taxed 3 per cent of the selling price. Special munitions tax of 10 per cent is levied.

British Columbia Saloons Closed. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 1.—The legal sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage has ceased in British Columbia. The provisions of the new provincial prohibition act have become operative and the bar and the liquor stores as known in the past go out of existence.

Italians Begin Another Drive. Rome, Oct. 1.—In another powerful drive the Italians have captured the high ground to the south of Podlaca and southeast of Madonna, in the Isonzo sector. The official announcement of this success by the war office reports also the capture of 1,409 prisoners.

Deny Connection With I. W. W. Enid, Okla., Oct. 1.—Defense witnesses in the trial of 11 draft resisters here denied knowledge of connection between the I. W. W. and the Working Class union, of which they were members. The government has contended that the I. W. W. furnished funds to organize a demonstration against the draft. Opposition was confined to a petition asking congress to put the law to a popular vote, according to the defense. None of the defendants expressed any opposition. It was declared.

GERMAN PLANES ATTACK LONDON

Another Air Raid on the British Metropolis Is Made by Night.

3 MACHINES DOWNED

Ten Planes Reach Outer Defenses but Are Driven Off by Anti-Aircraft Guns—Casualties Not Reported.

London, Oct. 1.—Persistent but unconfirmed rumors say that three enemy machines were brought down in a late raid over the London district by German airmen.

While there was a bright moon there was also a slight mist and airplanes were invisible to persons in the streets, but from the sounds of the anti-aircraft guns in action the indications were that the raiders were moving over various quarters of the district.

Field Marshal Lord French reports that two groups of enemy machines, followed by others flying singly, crossed the Kent and Essex coasts between 6:40 and 8 o'clock. They came toward London. About 10 penetrated the outer defenses, but only four or five got through to London itself.

Warnings Quickly Heeded. In the expectation of nightly raids, the streets of London were much less crowded than ordinarily. A majority of the people went early to their homes and the services in the churches were held at 5 instead of 7 o'clock. Hence, when the warning was issued, the streets were quickly cleared.

Eleven persons were killed and 82 injured in the previous night's air raid, it is announced officially. The material damage was not great.

Four Groups of Airplanes.

Four groups of German airplanes attempted to attack London in the last raid, but most of the machines were driven off. Bombs were dropped in the northeastern and southeastern districts of London and at various places in Kent and Essex. The following official report issued:

"Latest reports show that a determined and simultaneous attack was made upon London by three groups of raiders. Each of these groups, which approached from different directions, was broken up by anti-aircraft gunfire and only two or at the most three machines penetrated the defenses. Bombs were dropped in the northeastern and southeastern districts. A fourth group of enemy machines which attempted to approach London later was driven off, none of the raiders penetrated the outer defenses of the capital.

"Bombs also were dropped at various places in Kent and Essex."

KERENSKY TO FORM CABINET

To Put Army and Navy in Fighting Condition.

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—The immediate formation of a new coalition cabinet is reported to be the decision of Premier Kerensky. This is considered a direct challenge to the democratic congress, which is expected to demand the right to name the government.

The premier has agreed to a program approved by the business, banking and manufacturing interests.

The principle points are the immediate adoption of measures to put the army and navy in fighting condition, the merciless suppression of anarchy, absolute independence of cabinet ministers from parties and the taking of measures to guarantee the selection of the members of the constituent assembly which is to decide on Russia's future form of government in such a way that the assembly will express the free will of the Russian people.
